PRIVACY POLICY

We are committed to protecting your privacy and maintaining the security of any personal information received from you. We strictly adhere to the requirements of the data protection legislation in the UK.

The purpose of this statement is to explain to you what personal information we collect and how we may use it.

When you complete a form (e.g. our contact form), we ask you for your name and email address. We may use this personal information to contact you regarding your enquiry. We do not sell, rent or exchange your personal information with any third party for commercial reasons. We follow strict security procedures in the storage and disclosure of information which you have given us, to prevent unauthorised access in accordance with the UK data protection legislation.

We do not collect sensitive information about you except when you specifically knowingly provide it. In order to maintain the accuracy of our database, you can check, update or remove your personal details by completing our contact form. Our website uses cookies. Cookies are small text files that are created by a web server and stored on your computer when you visit a website. By visiting our website, you are giving consent to place cookies on your computer. If you have any questions about privacy please contact us.
